Gowns for Judges.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—Please give me space enough to say that I always read the editorial page and enjoy greatly your facile pen. But I cannot agree with you in your recommendation of "gowns for judges."
A few years ago I heard one of the ablest men in this State say that "when a man has to put on a gown (or a woman's dress) to give him dignity, or to make him appear dignified and impressive, it is time for him to sten down and out and let a real man take his place." That is also my opinion, and the opinion of many of our fellow, with their long black silk gowns, "habiliments consistent with the dignity of their office." • • • "compel the respect of both attorners appealing to them and the audience looking on."

Yes, I have seen them on the bench, and although I did not think them

But in this enlightened, republican land, such importations from the "Old country" are entirely out of place. We are talking now of judges on the bench. You spake of the army of the respect of both at the distributi the bishop down. If you will look in at any Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian or Disciples church in your city next Sunday morning, you will not be likely to see any such "uniform." Now there are hundreds of thousands of good citizens of this country who have the most profound respect for the opinions of our United States Supreme Court, who never saw the court in seasion, and who don't know that they wear gowns on the beach, and who would not have any more respect for their opinions on that account. Let it stop in Washington, if you please, Don't let us in Virginia attempt to "advance the dignity of the courts" by having our judges put on gowns of silk or of any other texture. Let the judge's knowledge of the law, his sense of justice, his honor as a maniet these dignify the bench, and we shall be safe.

Madam, be reasonable.

You know that unprotected butter absorbs the odor and taste of anything with which it comes in contact.

Even in your own clean refrigerator you have to be careful not to put your butter near vegetables or other food.

Just think what it must be exposed to in the open tub-dust, dirt, germs and ill odors!

Don't you think this is reason enough for you to order Meadow Gold Butter-in its perfectly protecting package?

Meadow Gold Butter is churned from pure, rich cream-pasteurized to make positive its purity and cleanliness.

Then, fresh and fragrant from the churn, it is packed so it reaches you without harm or change.

All good grocers sell Meadow Gold Butter.

Be sure to put Meadow Gold Butter on your next grocery list-let the family try it-we know they will prefer it to any other.

The genuine comes in a yellow package with a red seal.

OFFICERS CAPTURE WAGON LOADED WITH WHISKEY

cers sent from here this afternoon, captured a wagon with fifteen gallons of moonshine whiskey, near Pee Dee River, on the farm of J. D. Horne, but failed to catch the men in charge. A warrant was issued for Bud Cridler, who was with the wagon. The officers found him in an old field, but when he was ordered to surrender he ran and they failed to catch him. The wagon and whiskey was brought here For some time whiskey has been brought into the county by some parties, and sold to the negroes, who live on the farms along the river. But until to-day it has been impossible to locate any persons in the business.
